CLOSE: 07/07/03

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

POSITION VACANT: Engineering Education Administrator (Program Director), AD-801-04.
Annual salary ranges from $81,602 to $127,168.

LOCATION: Directorate for Education and Human Resources, Division of Undergraduate Education, Arlington, VA

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources.

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Serves as a Program Director for the Course, Curriculum, and Laboratory Improvement Program and participates in general management of all phases of solicitation, review, and management of proposals submitted to the program; contributes to the Foundation-wide monitoring and coordination of activities for undergraduate science, mathematics, engineering and technology (STEM) education; coordinates the engineering proposal processing in DUE in all programs; and provides leadership both within the Division and NSF in engineering education. Duties also include post-award evaluation and management projects and activities, including site visits and review of interim and final reports; keeps abreast of relevant engineering research by attending and representing DUE at professional meetings and conferences; and, reviews engineering and scientific literature. As Program Director, also conducts analyses and prepares reports and position papers as well as internal budget plans for program and other DUE activities.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must possess an advanced degree (PhD. or it's equivalent) in engineering and sufficient teaching experience to decide whether a proposed project is likely to meet the needs of students and faculty. In addition, six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or management experience is required. Applicants must be able to interact, on a peer basis, with senior scientific and managerial personnel throughout the NSF, other Federal agencies, academia, and private sector of the scientific community.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Knowledge of engineering and engineering education, with sufficient teaching experience to judge whether a proposed project is likely to meet the needs of students and faculty.
2. Research, analytical, and technical writing skills that evidence the ability to perform extensive inquiry into a wide variety of significant issues and to make recommendations and decisions based on findings.
3. Ability to organize, implement, and manage a proposal-driven grant program, allocating resources to meet a broad spectrum of program goals.
4. Knowledge of project management and/or research administration.

5. Ability to meet and deal with representatives from the scientific and engineering communities to advocate programs policies and plans.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement that specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.

The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.
